A Reflective Poem from Margot - and appropriate with the Jubilee soon!

~ Milestones! ~

*Do we think of Milestones as years of different stages?
or are they just for birthdays, that show our passing ages?*

*So just for fun we have begun...
...to look back to see how well we have done?*

*Childhood years are over and done, so let us start at 21
- Your adult life has just begun!*

*So now jump ahead to 30 - have you really stopped being 'flirty'.
Some say "life begins at 40" - looking good but being 'naughty'!
50 says you're halfway there, still got your teeth and all your hair?
60 or even 65 - You should be glad to be still alive?*

*Now at 70 you've reached your three score years and ten
- Childhood memories may begin again.*

80-90 all the years in between; perhaps you've reached 100 and expect a telegram from the Queen?

Margot Alston
